Dive In

Go around and let everyone answer...

In the movie “Field of Dreams”, the protagonist Ray Kinsella struggles with believing and acting upon a voice he hears in his corn field. While this is a fictional story, how is this similar to how we sometimes read and apply scripture to ourselves and to our circumstances?

Dig Deep

Read Scripture: Joshua 9:1-27; 10:1-43

- What promises from God have you read in scripture that you just did not believe or found difficult to believe?
- Or, do you believe every single promise God has made?
- What could happen if you put God’s promises into your prayer life? (pray like He’s already promised something)
- Reflect on other biblical truths/events which help us believe the sun stood still as stated in verse 12.

Do Big

- What can God do in your life if you hold on to the promises? (examples: Ephesians 3:20-21, Hebrews 13:5-6, 1 John 4:16-18)
- Holding on to God’s promises by faith will influence how and what we pray resulting in an audacious and bold identity. Identify some specific areas and promises that you would like to strengthen and grow toward this identity.
